ATMIA Announces a New President of the Board of Directors

Sioux Falls, SD, USA, London, United Kingdom & Cape Town, South Africa — The ATM Industry Association (ATMIA) today announced the election of the new President of the Board of Directors, Mr. Chris Chandler, who is President and CEO at Perativ, a Toronto-based international cash distribution network and cash optimization solutions company.

This is Mr. Chandler's second term as President of ATMIA, the first being between 2015–2018. At the time, he was Chief Executive Officer of Access Cash.

"I am honored to be elected as the President of ATMIA by my peers, he commented. I look forward to working with our Board of Directors, with our new CEO, Lonnie and the whole team. I am confident that ATMIA will continue to thrive as an organization and that we will collectively innovate and navigate the many changes impacting ATMs, Cash and Cash Distribution globally."

"Chris leads by example and demonstrates admirably the principle of giving back to the industry," said outgoing CEO of ATMIA, Mike Lee. "It's been a huge honor for me to work with him on the Board of Directors for many years and I know my successor, Lonnie Talbert, will likewise find him to be a leader he can lean on at all times. I wish both leaders, and ATMIA itself, a strong and bright future."
